

Everyone has opinions. We have convictions.

Proclamations are common on Wall Street. But they're meaningless if you don't stand by your words. Particularly if you're a broker-dealer. At MF Global, having convictions is a big part of our culture. We believe in our ideas because they come directly from research and a respected track record. So you're able to make more informed decisions. Learn how our relentless thinkers can keep you on top of the world markets at mfglobal.com/relentless. And work with the kind of people who aren't afraid to show a little backbone. TYPE MFGL <G0>
